Vs.
Bharat Bhikaji Bhalerao and ors. ..Respondents

Ms. Smita Mane i/b Mr. P.B. Shah for petitioners.
Mr. P.N. Karlekar for respondent no.1.

CORAM: B.H. MARLAPALLE, J.

Date : July 21, 2006.

P.C.:

1. Consequent to the order passed on 29/6/2006 the learned counsel for the parties have been able to bring them to compromise the matrimonial disputes and consent terms duly signed by both the spouses and their respective counsel are placed on record. The spouses have decided to seek a consent divorce and they will withdraw all the cases filed against each other. The consent terms are taken on record and marked "X" for identification.

2. In terms of these consent terms signed between the parties they have consented to dissolve their marriage as per Section 13-B of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955. The consent terms also provide for an access for the father and his parents to Swapnil, the son of the petitioner no.1 and respondent no.1. The respondent no.1 also agreed to provide for future expenses for the son as well as his education and the petitioner no.1-wife who is a Government employee like the respnodent-husband has waived her right for permanent alimony voluntarily.

3. The petition is, therefore, disposed off in terms of the consent terms and consequently the marriage of the petitioner no.1 with respondent no.1 stands dissolved under Section 13-B of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955. The Registry to issue a divorce decree.

4. Respective parties will appear before the courts where the cases against each other are pending within a period of two weeks from today and withdraw all such cases in terms of the consent terms.

5. Certified copy is expedited.
